To my dear Uncle and Cousins, thoughts, prayers, and many tears are flowing with you all. You were all there for me with with my mom and dad. I feel your pain, I have felt your loss. While it never is easy, I promise you will be stronger. A good woman, strong, yet gentle, kind, caring, profoundly soft spoken, elegant, subtle beauty. Rest in peace Aunty.

My dear, sweet Auntie Cesay came to live with us in Okinawa when I was 8 years old to help my mother (her older sister) take care of us (6 kids). She was so thoughtful, caring and tireless with just enough mean to keep us in line. She was also strikingly model beautiful. In the 46 years since then, I have not heard anybody say anything negative about her. May she live in the light of our Lord, and grace and consolation shine upon her family and loved ones. Lovingly, James and family
