Our condolence to the whole family. I remember "ama" as someone full of laughter, so much fun to be around with, with all his jokes. It also brings me back to a time when my husband Garnett was away for military deployment. I purchased a 6-8 seater dining table. I assembled it myself with the top of the table face down. I needed assistance turning it over. I called ama, agreed to help me. I picked him up, did what he had to do and dropped him off back to his house. Ama was always willing to do something for anyone in need. Rest in heaven Ama, we will miss you. Love and prayers to the whole family especially Ina.
