We met Lynn back in 2003 when we first moved to Hawaii. He showed us an apartment and we ask a bunch of questions and he totally blew us off but there was something genuine about him and we convinced him to rent to us. From that day forward we became friends. He always made time to hang with us when we passed through and always made us feel like we were special. His laugh was contagious and his heart huge. We will miss you friend! much love and condolences to the family. Aloha Lynn. Dony & Sheri

Leonard Jaffe has been my landlord and a friend for over 8 years, across two apartment complexes. Len had a knack for building a community in his buildings and was by far the best landlord I'd ever had. He'd always have time to stop for a chat, or try my latest failed attempt of jelly making. The only one I ever knew who didn't like Len was my small terrier dog, Diamond, who normally loved everyone. Perhaps, as a puppy in Len's apartment building, she always heard him around, but never got a chance to play, manifesting some resentment. She'd always bark to announce Len's arrival to the apartment complex. Being the hands-on type, Len came around a lot. I'd hold Diamond in my arms near him and she'd just growl quietly. When I won a gift certificate for a massage in the Lima Kokua chili day raffle, I gifted it to Len to make up for my little dog's misplaced animosity. On January 25th, I heard Len's voice in the hallway followed quickly by my lil dog announcing his presence for the last time. I'll miss that.

I haven't seen Cousin Lenny since I was very young, and though overall I recall little from those years, I nevertheless have the warmest memories of him, captured here in these photos. This is how I will always remember him. With deepest sympathies and all my love to Miles, our extended family and friends.

Lenny has been my dearest friend for the past 52 yrs, when we first met in Hawaii. He "approved" of my then future husband. We were married for 50 years. My husband died on May 15, 2019. Lenny and Miles attended the services of my husband with my family when we came to Hawaii and scattered his ashes. We celebrated this bittersweet event as Lenny and I found comfort in the stories we shared of our long friendship. For each of us there is a purpose and I reassure myself that these two very important men in my life, my husband, Ransom Boyce and Lenny Jaffe are now looking after me and guiding me. May they rest in God's peace. I will attend his services. Myrna P. Boyce 14155 SW 97th Place, Portland, Oregon 97224 myrnaboyce@aol.com

I wish I could be back in Hawaii with you all to share with you all the life of Len. I had known him for many years thru Lima Kokua. And he was one of the mainstay leaders of the organization. When I lived in Hawaii I saw a lot of Len and Miles, mostly thru the Lima Kokua Club. Len had a great head on his shoulders and lead the club in many ways, and directions all to the good, and I count Len as one of the reasons for the success of the club, along with the continued growth of the club. I was like many people shocked when I heard of his passing and even now feel he pains of it. I want to say to Mile your lost a wonderful man in Len. I know that he will be so missed by you as well as by the rest of us. He is now in a better place, and in the future many will be joining Len and living out their spiritual lives with him. Good by my good Friend, only wish I could be there to share in your after life. I has been wonderful knowing and working with you in the past. Chuck Anctil Las Cruces, NM formally of Honolulu, HI

I have known Len and Miles for the entire 44 years together. These two were/are my best friends. Talk about two peas in a pod. They were over to celebrate Chinese New Years the night he passed. He was enjoying himself and looking forward to Miles being remission so they could take that African Safari and many other cruises to Europe. I love that man. I will miss those nightly phone calls he made on his walks just to tell me about his day and how Miles was doing. His call always ended with "love you"....well. I love you!!!! And will miss you forever!
