Celebrating the Life of Robert John Cabuco

September 12, 1976 – June 28, 2025

Today, we celebrate the beautiful life of Robert John Cabuco, who illuminated our world from September 12, 1976, to June 28, 2025. Born and raised in the heart of Honolulu, Robert's kind heart, brilliant mind, and confident spirit left a lasting impression on all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Robert's greatest joy was his family. He shared a loving and joyful life with his devoted wife, Edna, and together they nurtured a home filled with laughter and love for their five remarkable sons: Jayden, Nicholas, Andrew, Nathaniel, and Landon. His deep bond with his sister, Joanne Cabuco-Matsumoto, added warmth and cherished memories to family gatherings.

Known for his unwavering kindness, Robert touched countless lives with his genuine care and thoughtfulness. His intelligence sparked engaging conversations, inspiring others to explore new ideas and embrace learning. His confident demeanor encouraged those around him to pursue their dreams fearlessly.

Though words cannot fully capture the vibrancy of Robert's life, the joy he brought to others is a testament to his wonderful spirit. His legacy lives on in the hearts of his family and friends, and in the smiles of all who were uplifted by his presence.

Let us honor Robert by celebrating the joyful memories he created and by continuing to spread kindness, embrace knowledge, and live confidently, just as he did. His light shines on through the love he shared and the lives he touched.

I Miss You Uncle Rob, you will forever be remembered in my heart as funny and very hardworking. Mahalo for opening your home to my mother and I. While there, I remember we all had Korean BBQ / Yakiniku in the outside area... That was a great and memorable night. As little as it was, I learned many things from you when we were staying with you. My condolences goes out to Aunty Edna and my cousins. We are Ohana.Love, Andre

I hope you all are finding the peace you need in this time of grief. Robert was my best friend at work since I started last year and he will be greatly missed, thanks to him, I have been successful at my job. Robert made the biggest and best impression on every single person he met. The world won't be the same without him!!
