Celebrating the Life of Edrin Pasion Delos Santos

October 8th, 1944 – March 6th, 2026

Born in Ilocos Norte, Philippines, Edrin Pasion Delos Santos grew up valuing close bonds and everyday joy. Friends and relatives remember how his roots shaped the warm outlook he carried throughout his years.

Edrin lived as a simple yet classy man who always placed family first. Gatherings felt brighter because he made sure everyone felt included and cared for.

He found delight in cooking flavorful meals, lifting spirits with a good song, and enjoying friendly games of chance just for fun. Each pastime showed his easy approach to life and his gift for turning ordinary moments into happy memories.

Edrin shared over thirty years with his wife, Rosalina Delos Santos. Together they raised Elmer, Eric, Jane, and Silvestre, teaching them the value of togetherness that guided his own path. He is best known as Super Papa to his eight grandchildren and ten great grandchildren

Edrin passed away in Honolulu on March 6th, 2026, leaving a legacy of laughter, music, and family unity. Today we celebrate his beautiful life and carry forward the simple, joyful spirit he so freely shared.
