Marcelo Duclayan Rivera

JUN 1, 1948 - MAR 21, 2026

Marcelo Duclayan Rivera was born on June 1, 1948, in San Fernando Philippines to Francisco and Benita Rivera. Marcelo Rivera is remembered for his hardworking nature, steady responsibility, and gentle compassion. Friends and family often spoke of his kind gestures that brought steady comfort to everyday life. He found simple joy in helping other people when needed. Marcelo showed support rather than many words. His time in the garden was another quiet act of care, growing food and flowers that reflected his giving spirit. Marcelo was happiest beside his wife, Imelda Rivera, and their daughter, Ashley Time. Moments spent together—whether tending plants or enjoying a favorite dish—remain cherished memories. He passed away in Ewa Beach on March 21st, 2026, leaving behind an example of steady kindness that will continue to guide those who loved him. In gentle remembrance, his family and friends hold close the everyday grace he shared: a helping hand, a cared-for garden, and a table always ready for others.
