God's Garden
God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be-thine'
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

I will always remember my Aunty Lily as a strong individual. She cared for her husband, Uncle Paul Cerezo until his death while living in Richmond California. Because of our own personal lives, we all take it for granted that we will always have that special time to share, visit and bond but not realizing that time flies and the what ifs are gone. I saw my aunt as independent and a very determined lady who doesn't allow anyone to push her around. Some people may not see this trait pleasant but I admired her for that for I see some of those traits in me. I will miss this lady very much and may she finally rest in peace for we will meet again one day in another life. Love you much, your niece. zvc
